

Ethics Resources

- AAMFT website at AAMFT.org under the tab “MFT Resources” and click “Legal and Ethical” for articles and bulletins.
- AAMFT Clinical Fellows, Members, and Associates are provided 3 hours annually of legal and ethical consultation with AAMFT staff as a membership benefit for matters relating to their professional practice. 703-838-9808.
- AAMFT Teneo online learning system has several ethics offerings. Go to AAMFT.org and click on large orange and blue Teneo logo on right side of web page and scroll down for choice of seminar.
- TAMFT Ethics Education Members are available for consultation.
- TNAMFT.org under the tab “Ethics Education,” ethics seminars being held in Tennessee are posted as they come to the attention of Ethics committee members.
- CPH & Associates, the professional liability insurance company website recommended by AAMFT, cphins.com under the tab “Legal Resources.” Under that heading are two resources:
  1. “Avoiding Liability Bulletin” written by Richard J. Leslie, J.D. a lawyer with years of experience helping mental health professionals practice ethically.
  2. “Avoiding Liability Helpline.”
- Cross Country Education <https://www.crosscountryeducation.com/> provides on-line workshops and rotates ethics seminars throughout Tennessee periodically.
- Pesi Continuing Education www.pesi.com also rotates ethics seminars periodically.